Old Europe’s
Goulash Week is back!

Goulash is a dish, originally from Hungary, a stew or a soup, usually made from beef, prepared with paprika powder, onions, vegetables and typical goulash spices.

The name originates from the Hungarian gulyás (goo~yash), the word for a cattle stockman or herdsman.

“Gulasch” in the German cuisine has many variations, most of the stews are prepared in a rich tomato based broth and the most popular is made from beef alias “Rindsgulasch”

“Gulasch Suppe”~ Goulash Soup  cup $6.oo  bowl $11.oo
a tomato based chunky beef soup with paprika, green bell peppers, onions and potatoes

“Rindsgulasch”~ Old Europe’s Beef Goulash  $18.oo
served with our house-made Spätzle

“Biergulasch”~ Beer Goulash  $19.oo
a beef goulash prepared with our Köstritzer dark beer served with potato dumplings

“Fiaker Gulasch”~ Viennese Fiaker Goulash  $25.00
this beef goulash also known as “Herren”~ Gentleman's goulash served with a fried egg, a spicy smoked pork & beef sausage, gherkins and sautéed bread dumplings

“Esterhazy Gulasch”~ Beef Goulash Esterhazy style  $20.00
presented with julienne vegetables, sour cream, capers and potato pancakes

“Wildschweingulasch”~ Wild Boar Goulash  $26.00
prepared with our Spätburgunder red wine and prunes
served with pan seared bread dumplings and apple red cabbage

“Kalbssahnegulasch”~ Creamy Veal goulash  $23.00
laced with Riesling wine and prepared with button mushrooms
served with our house-made Spätzle

“Kalbsgulasch”~ Paprika Veal Goulash  $22.00
prepared with green bell peppers and presented with potato dumplings

“Szegediner Gulasch”~ Székely Goulash  $17.00
...named after the Hungarian poet Józef Székely...
pork goulash prepared with sauerkraut presented with parsley potatoes “Schwiegermutter’s Krautgulasch” $15.00
braised white cabbage with ground pork & veal
served with mashed potatoes

“Wurstgulasch” $14.00
...a kids favorite...sausage wheels in tomato sauce
served with our house-made Spätzle

“Tofu Gulasch” $16.00
our vegetarian goulash prepared with winter vegetables and tofu
served with garlic bread

“Frikadellengulasch” ~ German meatball Goulash $15.00 prepared with bell peppers, onions and pickles in a hearty tomato sauce served with home fried potatoes

“Zigeunergulasch” ~ Pork Goulash Gypsy style $17.00
presented with mixed bell peppers served with curry rice

“Zweierlei Gulasch” ~ Mixed Goulash $21.00
pork and veal goulash served with spätzle

“Hirschgulasch” ~ Tender Venison Goulash $28.00 prepared with our Dornfelder red wine, button mushrooms and cranberries served with pan seared potato dumplings and apple red cabbage

Note: Not all Goulash versions are served every night. We will rotate the menu and serve at least 8 different Goulash versions each night.